

Financial Planning Week Events

Platinum Title Sponsor

A strong professional standard, including universal adherence to a code of ethics, rules of conduct and practice standards, is a hallmark of any profession and a fundamental element of the commitment that clients' interests are being served ethically, competently and diligently.

Explore the important ethical questions you must consider as a professional financial planner and earn one FPSC-Approved CE Credit in the mandatory Professional Responsibility category.

This session will feature a thought-provoking discussion exploring difficult ethical decisions and challenges that often occur in practice and will be hosted by FPSC's Director of Standards and Enforcement, Damienne Lebrun-Reid who will be accompanied by Cynthia Spry, partner at Babin Bessner Spry LLP.

The Ethics Breakfast Session is generously sponsored by Hagel Law Firm (Toronto event) and Business Career College (Vancouver event)

	Toronto
Date	Wednesday, November 23
Time	7:45 to 9:30 a.m.
	Old Mill Toronto 21 Old Mill Road, Etobicoke

Cynthia Spry, Partner at Babin Bessner Spry LLP

Cynthia has been involved in a variety of proceedings involving class actions, contractual disputes, oil and gas litigation, insolvency issues, shareholder and oppression remedy actions, and securities, mining, defamation and executive employment law. She has appeared before the Ontario Court of Appeal, the Ontario Superior Court of Justice (Commercial Division), the Alberta Court of Appeal, the Alberta Court of Queen's Bench, and the Alberta Securities Commission.

Damienne Lebrun-Reid, LL.B., Director of Standards & Enforcement, FPSC

Damienne began her law career in private practice, gaining extensive experience in the areas of civil fraud, securities litigation, health law and corporate commercial litigation before transitioning into professional governance and regulation. Damienne was Investigation Counsel at the Law Society of Upper Canada before joining FPSC, where she manages the Enforcement Team and oversees the Complaint Intake, Investigation and Prosecution of CFP® professionals further to allegations of professional misconduct. She is a volunteer member of the Human Resources Professional Association Review Committee, FPSC's representative member on the Investigations, Discipline and Enforcement Association, and a member of the Society of Ontario Adjudicators and Regulators.

